Management Development Program (MDP)

5-6 October 2019

In Association With

Who we are

Delhi School of Business (DSB) offers PGDM, an AICTE accredited program since 2013.

Times B-School has ranked it as the Best Emerging Business Schools in Delhi-NCR for four years consecutively. DNA-STAR B-School has awarded DSB for Innovation in Teaching Methodology.

Situated in the heart of Delhi, DSB has the top class infrastructure, excellent faculty, provides International exposure via certificate program of NUS Singapore, AIT Thailand, and Munich Business School Germany to its students

Objective of the MDP

Project Management has become an essential knowledge tool for work execution and associated professional career success. Keeping in view the increased focus of government and private sector organizations on successful project execution, the program assimilates practical aspects with fundamental principles.

It highlights relevant aspects of project management (function, framework, and process) for a practitioner. It also covers financial evaluation and risk management aspects, usually missing in other programs.

Participants

Traditionally the term, "press kit", referred to a set of documents, photographs and other relevant materials packaged together.

Program Director

Prof. Sanjay Chaudhary

Program Faculty

The program will be delivered by DSB's experienced faculty and eminent guest speakers from the corporate sector
